

HOUSE PASSES UNDERWOOD TARIFF MEASURE BY VOTE OF 281 TO 139

TARIFF FIGHT NOW SHIFTS TO THE SENATE WHERE THE DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY FOR BILL IS BUT FOUR

Bill's Passage Through the Senate Will Be Fought at Every Step By a Republican Organization Apparently in Accord on This Subject--There Is Said to Be Little Prospect of a Final Vote on the Bill Before August 1--Representatives Leave Washington for Their Homes.

THURSDAY IN CONGRESS.

Senate

Not in session.
Meets 2 p. m. Friday.
Commerce committee referred to sub-committee LaFollette's men's involuntary servitude bill for hearings during present session and ordered favorable report on nomination of Joseph E. Davies as commissioner of corporations.

Hearing on Alaskan problems before territories committee was resumed.

House

In session at 2 p. m. to complete consideration and vote on tariff bill.
Passed Underwood tariff bill. Leaders agreed no business should be transacted between next Saturday May 10th and June 1st.

Adjourned at 6:32 p. m., until 11 a. m. tomorrow.

WASHINGTON, MAY 8.—The Underwood tariff bill proclaimed by the Democratic party as the answer to its platform pledges to reduce the tariff downward, was passed by the house late today. The vote was 281 to 139 five Democrats voting against the bill and two Republicans voting for it. Four Progressives supported the measure and fourteen opposed it, while one independent Progressive joined with the majority. When Speaker Clark announced the vote in tones that revealed his satisfaction, exuberant Democrats hoisted a stuffed Democratic donkey over the heads of their colleagues in the rear of the chamber, a faint ripple of applause followed, and the gavel fell on the first chapter in the history of President Wilson's extra session of congress.

Representatives leave.
With the bill, after a month of consideration, on its way to the senate there was a rush of representatives for their homes tonight. In the house adjournment will be taken three days at a time, beginning next week, until June 1st. In the meantime the senate finance committee will study the bill, while the house ways and means committee will organize committees preparatory to the transaction of further business next month.

Republicans and Progressives led respectively by Representatives Mann and Murdock, protested to the last against the measure—the lowest tariff bill ever written—and proclaiming, as the Democratic avalanche bowled them over, the virtues of different tariff commission plans.

Carey and Stafford, For Bill.
Republicans who voted for the bill were Carey and Stafford of Wisconsin. Democrats who opposed it were Broussard, Durpa, Lazaro and Morgan of Louisiana on account of the schedule reducing sugar twenty-five per cent and sending it to the free list in three years; and C. B. Smith of New York. Progressives who voted for the bill were Kelly and Ruxley of Pennsylvania, Nolan of California and Bryan of Washington. Kent of California, formerly a Republican but now an Independent Progressive also voted for the bill. Progressive Leader Murdock and thirteen of his Progressive followers voted with the minority. Representative Copley, a Progressive, did not vote, answering "present" to his name.

In the final consideration of the measure, Minority Leader Mann made a long speech on a point of order by Mr. Underwood to rule out provision for a tariff board in the motion by Representative Payne of New York to recommit the bill. Speaker Clark sustained the point of order. Mr. Mann appealed from the decision of the chair and a roll call was taken on Mr. Underwood's motion to table the appeal, the Democrats winning 274 to 143.

Progressive Leader Murdock also moved to recommit with instructions to provide for a non-partisan tariff commission, but he failed to get a roll call and then the Payne motion to recommit, minus the tariff board provision was lost by 123 to 296.

Fight Shifts to Senate.
Tomorrow the tariff fight shifts from the house, with its overwhelming Democratic majority to the senate, where the party's slim majority of six already has been reduced, to four. Unless senators familiar with the progress of such legislation are mistaken there is now little prospect of a final vote on the bill before August 1st.

The bill's passage through the senate will be fought at every step by a Republican organization apparently in accord on this subject, and willing to spend unlimited time and energy in an effort to defeat it. Leaders of the Democrats on the senate finance committee which will handle the bill, expressed the belief tonight that it would go through in practically the same form as it passed the house, and that their small majority will stand firm to the last.

Plan Several Changes.
The sub-committee of the finance committee, which have been investigating the schedules of the Underwood bill for the last few weeks, plan to make a few changes in several schedules, but wool and sugar and other schedules which brought out the hard fighting in the house are not to be touched, according to the present plan. The income tax and administration features also are to stand.

Democratic leaders acknowledge that the two senators from Louisiana will not accept the sugar schedule and that they might be willing to combine with others to defeat the whole bill.

A change of two more Democratic votes would bring about the end of the Louisiana desire. Republicans who are interested in beating the bill and who have canvassed those Democrats who looked at all doubtful, agreed tonight that they had little hope of success.

McKellar Formally Excused.
Just before the house reached a final vote on the Underwood tariff bill today Representative Kenneth McKellar of Tennessee was stricken with a severe attack of indigestion as he was passing through a corridor returning to the floor from a visit to friends in the gallery. He was carried to his home and at the request of Representative Padgett the house formally excused him from casting his vote on the bill.

Discuss Reorganization.
About fifty Republicans in the house met tonight to discuss an early reorganization of the Republican congressional campaign committee, but owing to the opposition led by Republican Leader Mann, the meeting took no action.

Will Meet in Chicago.
Progressive Republicans in congress who wish to confer with state leaders in an effort to form some plan that will enable Republicans to "get together" will leave Washington tomorrow night for Chicago where the conferences will begin on Sunday.

Six senators and a dozen members of the house are expected to attend the meetings. Senator LaFollette declined tonight to say whether or not he would attend and Senators Clapp and Bristow, mentioned as among the number expected, probably will not be present. Among subjects of discussion will be the question of representation in the national committee.

The conference was arranged by Senator Cummins of Iowa.

Expect to Sign Bill.
President Wilson let it be known today that when he acts on the sundry civil bill he will make a statement concerning the provision in it exempting labor unions and farmers organizations from prosecution under a fund appropriated for enforcement of the Sherman anti-trust laws. The president is expected to sign the bill.

DR. J. W. ECKMAN TO WED MISS LOIS WATT

At a 1 o'clock dinner given Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Watt of Winchester, announcement was made of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Lois Frost Watt, to Dr. J. W. Eckman. The marriage will take place June 18.

The guest list included thirty and all the appointments were perfect. The house was beautifully decorated, white and green being used through the various rooms and in the dining room pink and white. An elegant dinner of nine courses was served by Messrs. Vickery & Merrigan of this city. The tables contained pretty flowers and shaded lamps of heart shape.

The announcement was made by means of hand painted place cards. Each card was in the shape of a heart and from it hung by delicate ribbons were two smaller hearts, one containing the name of the bride and the other the name of the groom. The date of the wedding, June 18, was written on the large heart. During the afternoon music was furnished by the Vickery & Merrigan orchestra.

The bride-to-be is one of the popular young women of Winchester and has often visited in Jacksonville, where she has many friends. The groom-to-be is the son of Rev. J. W. Eckman, Sr., of Decatur. He has been practicing his profession in Winchester for the past three years.

DISCLOSE MONOPOLY OF GRAIN ELEVATORS

A FEW MEN ARE CLAIMED TO CONTROL PRACTICALLY ALL ELEVATORS

Board of Trade in Answering the Government's Suit Charging the Fixing of Grain Prices Through "Call Price" Rule Assert the Rule is Necessary to Offset the Power Controlled by These Few Men.

CHICAGO, MAY 8.—A monopoly of terminal and country elevators by which a half dozen members of the Chicago board of trade control three-fourths of the grain shipped into Chicago was disclosed today in the answer of the board of trade to the government suit charging the board with arbitrarily fixing grain prices through the exchange "call price" rule. The board answered the charges by asserting that the rule was necessary to offset the power controlled by these few men.

The board charges that these unnamed men had made leases with railroads, which gave them control of practically all grain elevators in Chicago used as public warehouses and also of country elevators in the grain districts. Each of the men, it is said, was allotted the control of grain along certain lines of railroads and the others agreed not to compete in buying or selling. Through this agreement it was charged the men were able to meet and fix a price for grain a cent higher than the Chicago dealers could pay. To meet this situation the call price system was devised.

The rule forbade trading outside of exchange hours, 10:30 a. m. to 1:30 p. m., at prices other than those prevailing at the close of the exchange.

LOCAL MUSICIANS
WELCOME JEFFRIES

"WELCOME HOME" BANQUET GIVEN AT GRAND.

Members of Local Musicians' Union Entertain in Honor of Returned Band Leader, His Family and Associates.

A splendid banquet was given at the Grand Opera house Thursday evening by the members of local union No. 128, A. F. of M., in honor of Prof. and Mrs. C. C. Jeffries, Wilbur Jeffries and Frank Wolter, welcoming them back from their year's stay in Hutchinson, Kan.

During the intermissions and part of the show at the opera house a twenty-five piece orchestra under the direction of J. Bart Johnson played an excellent program and after the last show of the evening tables were arranged on the stage of the theatre and an excellent banquet was served to thirty-seven members of the union and their guests by the proprietors of the Grand cafe. The menu follows:

Cream of Tomato
Sour Pickles Radishes Olives
Fried Spring Chicken
Cream Gravy
Prime rib of beef au jus
Potatoes au gratin June Peas
Asparagus tips on toast
White and Graham Bread
Tea Biscuits
Ice Cream Cake Bon Bons
Coffee

After the banquet had been served J. Bart Johnson, president of the local union, took charge and acted as toastmaster. Mr. Johnson referred to his association with the local band since 1882, when the band was organized, and told of the need of Mr. Jeffries as the band's leader and in the union. He also spoke of the pleasure it gave him to find such a hearty response to the call and such a wealth of good feeling and good fellowship among the members of the organization.

Mr. Johnson introduced the different speakers in a very happy manner and all of the talks were brimming with good fellowship and a spirit of happiness at being able to welcome Mr. Jeffries "back home." Some of the speakers referred to the good work of the band in the past and of the advisability of attempting the organization of a symphony orchestra. No little enthusiasm was aroused over the idea and the proposition met with such hearty support that it is entirely probable that one will be formed by the members of the local union. The relation of musicians as individuals and bands and orchestras to a community and city were discussed at length and some interesting points were brought out. The purpose of and benefits of a union were also discussed, and over the whole there could be felt an atmosphere of good fellowship, in the best that the words imply.

The committee in charge of the arrangements for the banquet was composed of Mrs. Fred Randall, T. J. Brennan and Thomas Drake and they were given a vote of thanks for the excellent manner in which they carried the affair through.

Commissioner J. F. Brennan spoke on "The Past and Future of Local 128." Paul B. Fritchey, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce on "Musicians and Their Part Toward Building a City." Viggo Jensen on "Music From An Artistic Standpoint" and among the others who were called on were: Col. H. L.

STATE TROOPS DEFEAT FEDERALS AT SAN ROSA

GOVERNMENT LOSSES WERE 38
KILLED AND 12 TAKEN PRISONERS

Col. Alvarado With Reinforcements Are Hastening to Insurgents' Aid at Guaymas—Japs of Sonora State Offer Their Services to Insurgent Government.

DOUGLAS, ARIZ., MAY 8.—Federal forces lost in a battle yesterday at Santa Rosa near Guaymas, according to arrivals here today. The government lost thirty-eight men killed and wounded and forty-two taken prisoners, besides 150 rifles and ammunition, while the state forces lost ten killed and twenty wounded.

Col. Alvarado and 75 well armed men, many recruits from the nearby mines, left Cananea today to hasten to assist the insurgents investing Guaymas.

Many Killed in Train Wreck.
Nogales, Ariz., May 8.—Two hundred lives are reported lost in the train disaster at Don, near the Sinaloa-Sonora border yesterday. State troop leaders declare that the train bearing 250 federal soldiers was not derailed by stealth. It is said that the insurgents fired into the train, exploding a car of dynamite which the federals were conveying to Guaymas.

Japs Would Aid Insurgents.
Douglas, Ariz., May 8.—Four hundred Japanese residents of Sonora state have offered their services to arms of L. L. Bessiere, the insurgent governor, according to a code telegram received by the constitutional committee here today. The offer was refused, the governor explaining that the struggle was one in which Mexicans only should participate.

Watching Mexican Events.
Washington, May 8.—Intimations came from the white house that President Wilson was carefully watching the course of events in Mexico and that the United States government at present was waiting to see if the announced program of the Huerta government would materialize before determining the question of recognition.

Administration officials say the United States thus far has treated with the "de facto" government only on business of the most routine character, and that it also has had no dealings with the constitutionalists in the north.

AVIATOR WHO FLEW OVER JACKSONVILLE HELD IN ARIZONA

Didier Masson and Mechanic Are Held on Suspicion of Intending to Aid Insurgents.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 8.—Warrants issued at Phoenix on information from Dudley Robinson, assistant United States attorney for Southern California, are in the hands of the federal officers at Tucson to be served on Didier Masson, the French aviator, and his assistant, Thomas Dean, according to federal authorities here.

Five warrants were issued at Phoenix charging conspiracy to violate the presidential proclamation against conveying arms or ammunition of war into Mexico.

Local federal officials declined to disclose the identity of others who are sought in connection with the alleged shipment of the aeroplane into Mexico.

Were Held On Suspicion.
Tucson, Ariz., May 8.—Officials of the United States marshal's office here and county sheriffs today inspected the aeroplane being held at Pike's Ranch, 20 miles south of Tucson. Aviator Didier Masson and Mechanic Thomas Dean, who are on the ground insist that they intended to test the eighty horse-power machine, employing the flat country to avoid accidents.

Local federal officials declined to disclose the identity of others who are sought in connection with the alleged shipment of the aeroplane into Mexico.

Aviator Masson will be remembered by local citizens. He was here last year with the Motordrome company under the management of Mr. Friedman. He has had a leave of absence for a year and has never severed this connection with the company. His place is being filled by Jimmie Ward. Masson is the only aviator that ever flew over Jacksonville and his flights here were successful and interesting.

WILL MEET AT PEORIA.
Quincy, Ill., May 8.—Electrical workers for Illinois, Indiana and Iowa ended their annual meeting today by selecting Peoria, Ill., for next year's meeting and electing the following officers:

Thomas Lake, Hammond, Ind., president.
Charles W. Hughes, Joliet, Ill., vice-president.
F. H. Stapp of Indianapolis, secretary-treasurer.

COL. HARVEY PAYS TRIBUTE TO MORGAN

MAKES ADDRESS BEFORE BANKERS IN NEW YORK

Cites Remark Made Day Before Money Magnate Sailed for Europe as Measuring Depths of His Patriotism--Offered His Help Should His Country Need It.

NEW YORK, MAY 8.—"When you see Mr. Wilson tell him for me that if ever there should come a time when he thinks any influence or resources that I have can be used for the country they are wholly at his disposal." These, the last words of J. Pierpont Morgan spoken to Col. George Harvey the day before Mr. Morgan sailed for Europe, never to return alive, were related tonight in an address by Colonel Harvey before a gathering of bankers and other representative men at a dinner of the Trust Companies of America.

"Mr. Morgan was a Republican and in the words of Colonel Harvey not only regarded the political views advanced by Mr. Wilson with honest apprehension, but never considered the Democratic party fully capable of governing this nation." His message to the new president, Colonel Harvey cited as measuring the depths of the man's patriotism.

Summoned to Testify.
Referring to Mr. Morgan's testimony before the Pujio committee at Washington Colonel Harvey said:

"Although mentally as strong as ever, physically he was sadly broken when summoned to Washington. At his age and in his condition it was the severest ordeal of his life; but it was for the best, as he himself came to realize.

"I hated to go," he said to me, with characteristic simplicity, the day before he sailed away. "I hated to go, but I am glad I went. I think I did some good."

"It was a comprehensive utterance in his usual few words—a revelation, too, of his innermost thought and aspiration. I had spoken of the favorable impression that had been created by his testimony and he had evinced the keenest appreciation.

"Yes," he had said, "I am convinced that what you say is true. I think they know me better now. I hope so."

"No sensitive man, no human—could have failed to be touched by the multitude of friendly expressions which had come to him from all sections of the country."

CHARGE THAT WITNESSES ARE FREELY PAID FOR THEIR SERVICES

Attorney Seeks to Show That Witnesses at Hearing of Government's Suit to Dissolve Alleged Harvester "Trust" Are Being Paid To Testify.

St. Paul, Minn., May 8.—"How much do you intend to charge the International Harvester Co. for appearing as witnesses here?" Wm. Schwager of Utica, Minn., was asked at the hearing late today of the government's suit to dissolve the alleged harvester "trust."

"I don't have to tell you that," was the reply to the question, which was asked by E. P. Grosvenor, government attorney.

Grosvenor sought to show that witnesses were being freely paid for their services.

"Who asked you to come here and testify?" Grosvenor questioned.

"Mrs. Wright the International agent at Winona."

"You were told that you would be paid for your services?"

"At least my railroad fare would be paid," answered Schwager.

Grosvenor then started those present by asking the witness to point out the attorney for the defense who had given him his instructions.

Schwager turned and pointed to Judge T. J. Doyle of Omaha who had directed examination of the witness.

"You're excused. Go to the pay window and get your money," Grosvenor said.

"Well I guess that doesn't make any difference, does it?" snapped Schwager as he left the stand.

Testimony of other witnesses was a repetition of that already given relative to the operations of the International in their respective territories.

WEATHER INDICATIONS AND TEMPERATURES.

Washington, May 8.—For Illinois: Showers in north section Friday or Friday night; south portion cooler Friday night; Saturday showers and cooler, moderate winds mostly north-west and north over north portion.

JAPAN WILL MAKE FORMAL PROTEST TODAY

WILL MAKE KNOWN NATURE OF OBJECTIONS TO ALIEN LAND BILL

Japanese Ambassador Will Present Protest to Secretary of State Bryan and the Position of the U. S. Government Will Then Be Defined to the Ambassador.

WASHINGTON, MAY 8.—The Japanese government through Ambassador Chinda will acquaint Secretary Bryan early tomorrow of the nature of its objections to the anti-alien land bill awaiting Governor Johnson's signature in California, and by noon it is expected that the position of the United States government will have been defined to the ambassador.

This understanding following conferences which Secretary Bryan had late today with President Wilson at the white house and with Ambassador Chinda at the state department. Secretary Bryan had to hurry away to Baltimore to attend a dinner there, and he talked with Ambassador Chinda but a few minutes, arranging to meet him at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow immediately after which the Japanese protest. Afterward Mr. Bryan will confer again with Ambassador Chinda, explaining the attitude of the administration. This was a busy day for Secretary Bryan on his return from Sacramento but he gave more of his time to the California situation. It is believed here that the referendum movement being urged by Theodore Bell, a prominent Democrat in San Francisco, may have the effect of postponing the entire question for a period long enough for the United States and Japan to arrive at an understanding or perhaps negotiate a new treaty covering disputed points.

While Secretary Bryan declined to discuss the referendum and while house officials were equally reticent it is known that friends of the administration have told the president that there would be no difficulty in getting sufficient signers in California to compel a referendum at the polls on the anti-alien bill.

MAY BAR PART OF TESTIMONY IN JOHNSON'S PRESENT TRIAL

Whether Testimony That Puglist Beat Women With Whom He Associated Is to Be Permitted Will Be Decided by Judge Today.

Chicago, May 8.—Whether testimony that Jack Johnson beat the white women with whom he associated is to be permitted in his present trial on charges of violating the federal white slave law will be decided by Judge Carpenter tomorrow.

Belle Schrieber, the woman Johnson is said to have transported from Pittsburgh to Chicago, told on the stand today that Johnson had provided the money for trips from Chicago to New York and from Chicago to Oakland.

The last words of her testimony today brought up the question of his treatment of women. She had testified to coming here from Boston in 1910.

"Did you have any discussion about coming here?" asked Assistant District Attorney Parkin, conducting the prosecution.

"No discussion," Miss Schrieber said. "He beat me up so bad that I had to come here."

Objections interposed by the defense stopped the witness and court adjourned.

Miss Schrieber will resume the stand today.

Judge Carpenter raised the question of a legal tangle over the phraseology of the indictment, which charges that Miss Schrieber "gave herself up to Johnson for immoral purposes."

"The question is going to come up," he said, "whether a lost woman can give herself up to immoral purposes or whether she can only give herself up to salvation."

Laurie Sawmill Catches FIRE LATE THURSDAY NIGHT

Blaze Discovered About Midnight by Neighbor—Fire Still Burning This Morning.

Late Thursday night a saw mill on the farm of T. E. Laurie, six miles east of the city, caught fire and was still burning at 2:30 o'clock this (Friday) morning.

The fire was discovered about midnight by a neighbor who happened to look out of his house and see the flames and Mr. Laurie was immediately notified. He went to the plant at once, found that the fire had gained quite a little headway and called a number of neighbors for assistance. It was not long before quite a number of men had gathered and were busily engaged in removing a large quantity of lumber from the place. As the fire was still burning early this morning nothing definite could be ascertained as to the extent of the fire or the damage.

If you want real bargain in coats, suits, dresses, waists and millinery go to Herman's.

YOUTH DROPS DEAD.
Janesville, Wis., May 8.—Life Gibson of LaCrosse, Wis., 15 years old, a student of the state school for the blind, fell dead today while practicing for a 100 yard dash.

MEMBERS WILL HOLD CONFERENCE

WILL MEET IN CHICAGO TO PLAN INVESTIGATION

Senators Designated to Conduct Investigation Into Affidavit Reflecting Upon Character of O'Hara Will Attempt to Locate Woman Who Made the Affidavit.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., MAY 8.—Members of the committee of four senators designated to conduct the investigation into the affidavit reflecting upon the character of Lieutenant Governor O'Hara probably will hold a conference in Chicago next Saturday or Monday to formulate plans for a continuation of the investigation. This statement was made late today by Senator Samuel E. Littleton, chairman of the committee.

It is probable that the investigators will proceed first to establish the authenticity of the affidavit in question which was produced yesterday by Deputy Richard Sullivan of this city. They will endeavor to locate the woman who made the affidavit, said to be Maud Robinson of this city. From her they expect to get the detailed story which they will investigate.

Lieutenant Governor O'Hara indicates his confidence in the outcome of the affair, which he says he hopes will be sifted to the bottom so there can be no possibility of doubt in any one's mind regarding the truth in the matter.

Committee to Peoria.
Members of the committee investigating conditions in "home-finding institutions" will go to Peoria tomorrow to investigate eleven institutions in that city. Chairman Curran said it was probable the committee would hold hearings in Peoria for several days.

The committee today visited the Lincoln Colored Home in Springfield. It is an orphanage and old people's home. Conditions were reported as bad.

The house elections committee late today reported out the woman's suffrage bill with the recommendation that it pass.

Several members of the house expressed indignation at the action of the committee, saying the measure which passed the senate yesterday was not formally before the committee. That it was in the clerk's office at the time the election committee acted upon it.

Threats of a protest before the house are being made.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Friends and relatives of John Rea of the Woodson neighborhood went to his home recently taking well filled baskets with them and gave him a happy surprise in honor of his birthday. It was also the birthday of his mother, Mrs. James Rea of Murrayville and of Samuel Henry of Woodson and the joint celebration proved an event of great pleasure. Akers and family of Manchester; James Rea and family of Murrayville; Henry Rea and family of Murrayville; Sam Henry and family of Woodson; Miss Helen Roney and Leeland Wright of Murrayville.

The Home Missionary society of Grace M. E. church was entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. W. J. Moore and Mrs. R. A. Gates in the Queen Esther room of the church. After reports had been heard by officers of the society the topic "Mormonism as a Life" was handled in an able manner by Mrs. J. W. Lowden. Mrs. Smith read a temperance leaflet entitled "My Guests Never Touch Wine." Several members are planning to go to the district convention to be held in White Hall, May 20. Final plans were made for the dinner May 15, the day of the jubilee. Tickets can be secured from members or at Hopper's shoe store. The next meeting of the society will be held at the home of Mrs. Joseph Capps.

The next charity tea for the benefit of Pooravast hospital will be held at the home of Mrs. T. J. Pitner on May 21. The date was originally announced as May 22.

Dr. F. A. Norris was host at Colonial Inn to the members of the Thursday night card club. The prizes of the evening were won by Mrs. H. Bancroft and Dr. A. B. Gregory. Elaborate refreshments were served.

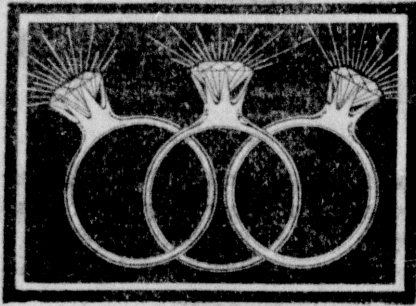

Miss Celia Cathart who was honored as May queen at the Woman's college Wednesday afternoon, was hostess to a dinner party given at the Peacock Inn, Thursday evening. ### LOCOMOTIVE LABORATORY AT UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS.

Urbana, Ill., May 7.—A two day program of exercises was inaugurated here today in connection with the dedication of the locomotive laboratory, railway engineering laboratory and mining engineering laboratory, three buildings recently erected in a group at the University of Illinois. As a result of the increased facilities afforded by the new laboratories it is expected that the state university will soon rank among the best technical institutions of America. The practical side of railway transportation in every detail is to be taught at the university. The new transportation building costs $200,000 and contains what is declared to be the finest laboratory in the world for testing locomotives. In the testing plant a locomotive can be run under conditions which may be varied at will. Problems of hauling power and coal and steam consumption may be easily investigated. Engine friction, which cannot be determined in ordinary road tests, may be easily tested in the laboratory.

OBITUARY.

Blenda Viola Bergstone, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bergstone, died at the family home in the southeast part of Sherrard, Wednesday forenoon, April 30, after a gradual decline in health extending over a period of four or five months.

She was born in Utterstad's Socken, Skaraborg's Lan, Sweden, August 24, 1891, while the family were there on a visit. The following year the family returned to this country and her first birthday was spent on the Atlantic ocean. After living in Mo-line three years she came with her parents to Sherrard and this has since been her home.

Her early education was acquired in the Sherrard schools; she graduated from the Sherrard High school May 21, 1907, and in August of the same year she received her teacher's certificate, having passed her examination with the highest grade of any teacher in Mercer county up to that time, and this in spite of being the youngest in the county to take the examination.

She was engaged to teach the Scott Center school west of Sherrard that fall and held that position for four years, attending summer school at the Western Illinois State Normal school during the summer vacation, in order to fit herself for advancement. In the fall of 1911 she took the state civil service examination, ranking fourth in grades among a list of 200 who took the examination.

She received the appointment of teacher in the Illinois School for the Blind at Jacksonville and held this position until her death, teaching the two highest grades.

Always of a very robust constitution it caused her parents much anxiety when she returned home for her Christmas vacation. She attempted to reassure them, however, thinking it was only a cold which would soon pass off. But the time came for her to return to her school work after New Year, her ailment had become more pronounced and from that time she grew gradually weaker until the Master called her home.

Early in life she gave promise of being a most unusual child. She cared nothing for the frivolities that usually occupy the young woman, and was never happier than when she was studying to fit herself for future usefulness, or when she roamed through the fields and pastures, accompanied by her father, gathering flowers and studying the beauties of nature, God's wonderful creation. Her ambition was to acquire knowledge in order to properly fit herself for the higher problems of life. Her taking away when her life usefulness was more and more unfolding itself, leaving her parents childless and alone, thus seems more sad, if possible, than the ordinary death.

She attended Sunday school from her earliest childhood years and was for a number of years an active worker in the Christian Endeavor society.

Her influence on those with whom she came in contact will live long. The funeral services were held in the Congregational church in Sherrard at 2:30 o'clock on May 2, 1913. Rev. A. K. Johnson being in charge. Interment was made in Sherrard cemetery.

All Evidence of Impure Blood and a Run-Down Condition.
When the blood becomes thin, poor, devitalized nature cries out through such external and often painful evidence for help, and the safest, surest and most helpful remedy we know is Vinol.

This is because it is a combination of the two most world famed tonics—the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil (without the oil) and tonic iron for blood. Vinol strengthens the digestive organs, creates a healthy appetite purifies and enriches the blood, creates strength.

Mary Lang of Altoona, Pa., says: "Ever since childhood, I have been delicate, and my blood poor, thin and devitalized. Nothing seemed to help me until I took Vinol and it has built me up and made me strong."

We say positively there is nothing like Vinol to purify and enrich the blood and build up weak, run-down people. If it should fail in your case we will return your money. Lee P. Alcott, druggist, Jacksonville, Ill.

OUTLINES POLICY FOR SOUTH JACKSONVILLE

President Hackett in Address Points Out Needs of Village—Hope For a Business Administration.

In his inaugural address in assuming duties as president of South Jacksonville, J. H. Hackett had the following to say:
To the Retiring President and Members of the Board of Trustees of South Jacksonville: The organization of the territory now embraced within the limits of South Jacksonville into a village was for the purpose of making needed improvements which could not be done in any other way. Sidewalks and lights were the two things most needed for the comfort and convenience of the people. Hardly had the organization been consummated before the building of concrete walks commenced and how extensively this has been done we all know. It is doubtful if any village in Illinois ever built in one year as many walks as did South Jacksonville during the year 1912. Many electric street lights have also been placed where needed and all without unduly burdening the taxpayer or the issuing of a single bond or other form of indebtedness. I congratulate you, Mr. President, and you gentlemen of the board, in doing so much and so well in so short a time. In consenting to take the place of your efficient and worthy president I have done so from a sense of duty and at your solicitation. My duty will be to preside over your deliberation, not to conduct the affairs of the village. I hope you will not expect me to "run things," to use a common expression. That's up to you gentlemen of the board of trustees. I cannot but feel some pride in being associated with such gentlemen as constitute the board—men competent and willing to make sacrifices for the good of their neighbor. Our motto should be "The greatest good to the greatest number" and special favors to none. Every dollar of the people's money judiciously spent—a day's pay for a day's work; in other words, a thorough business administration.
Keeping Roads in Repair.
There is one thing that troubles me and that is the condition of our roads and how to put them into good repair and keep them so. I shall appoint men on the committee having streets and alleys in charge who have had experience along that line and I hope they will give the roads considerable personal attention until they are in good condition and then arrange to keep them so. It is often the case that a small expenditure of money, at the right time, saves a much larger amount later. I recommend that the committee divide the territory into three parts, each member taking personal supervision of the part allotted him. It is my opinion a larger expenditure on the roads and a smaller one on sidewalks the coming year will result in "the greatest good to the greatest number" of our citizens and the public generally.
Greenwood Avenue Sidewalk.
A sidewalk has been ordered on the north side of Greenwood avenue to the village limits on the west. In the interest of that class of persons living in Jacksonville who are to a large extent unable to visit the two cemeteries, Calvary and Diamond Grove, except by street car line, I trust that the people of Jacksonville will undertake to provide the means for extending this proposed walk to the cemeteries, the citizens of South Jacksonville doing their share also. In furtherance of this laudable work I will take the liberty of appointing Village Clerk John R. Hill and Trustees Hehl and Beasall a committee to solicit subscriptions and represent the village in this undertaking, provided the people of Jacksonville show a disposition to push this matter to a finish.
It gives me pleasure to say at this time that any unpleasantness that may have been felt by some of the citizens of Jacksonville by the organization of South Jacksonville has largely disappeared. I have been assured by Mayor Davis and several of the commissioners that it is their desire to maintain the most friendly relations with this board of trustees and co-operate with them in anything that may be done looking to the interests of citizens of both city and village.
More Committee Authority Needed.
I am of the opinion that our sidewalk ordinance should be so amended as to give the street and alley committee authority to allow a well settled elder foundation to remain and not require the owner of the abutting property to be to the expense of substituting stone.
It has been my observation that the affairs of municipalities are usually carried on with less economy and efficiency than private business. May I not indulge in the hope that the trustees of South Jacksonville will prove the exception to this rule and conduct the affairs of this village and economically, as if they alone were paying the bills. Excessive taxation of property in most of the cities of Illinois is getting to be very burdensome. Let us see to it that this does not become the case in South Jacksonville. Our prosperity and increase in population depends largely on a low rate of taxation and a judicious expenditure of the people's money. We have been selected by the voters of this village to carry on its affairs. Let us do so in a manner entitling us to receive their commendation.
It is part of my duty as president of the board to appoint a village constable and various committees. I will appoint Joseph Walters constable and pound master; committee on streets and alleys, Hehl, Hembrough and Graft; on ordinances, Baxter, Hehl and Hembrough; on light, Cannon, Beasall and Graft. I will also appoint a committee on finance consisting of Hembrough, Baxter and Beasall to audit the accounts of the treasurer and clerk and advise

MOTHER'S CONGRESS GROWS IN INTEREST

ENTHUSIASTIC BANQUET HELD AT PEACOCK INN.

Addresses on Important Subjects Heard By Prominent Speakers—Visit to State Institutions and College—Lieutenant Barrett O'Hara Speaks Tonight.

The principal event of the second day of the Mothers' congress was the large and enthusiastic banquet at the Peacock Inn Thursday night. The afternoon was divided between visits to the state schools for the deaf and blind and Illinois college concluded by a flying "Seeing Jacksonville" excursion by the courtesy of nine automobile owners of the city. Routine business filled the time before noon, when the delegates adjourned to the Christian church where they were served to a lunch by three circles of the Pastoral Helpers. A most enjoyable feature of the stay at Illinois college was the informal reception and tea by Mrs. C. H. Rammelkamp, the wife of the president.

One hundred and thirty delegates, members of the local parent-teacher's association and guests sat down at 8 o'clock to a banquet at the Peacock Inn. The popular caterers of this establishment out did themselves in serving the guests and many compliments were passed on the menu. The repast finished, Mrs. Danskin, the local president introduced as toastmistress, Miss Louise Inglis of the School for the Blind, who filled the position in a most charming and tactful manner.

"The Rights of Children" the first toast, was responded to by Miss Marie Hesse of Chicago. "The first right of the child is to be well born. The child properly brought into this world has the right to be a child in the days of its normal childhood. Respect for the rights of others is a third quality of which no child should be deprived. Everyone should insist that each boy and girl be brought up to respect the truth."

"The only way to ingrain truthfulness into a child is to be absolutely truthful ourselves. We Americans are often known as a nation of cheerful liars. We forget how easy it is for the young to lose all respect for age when the latter do not stick to the truth. Every child has a grain of reverence in his soul which has a right to be developed."

"But how can one expect children to be reverent when their elders make light of such various things as life, death and their Creator. With these rights granted to a child he will realize that the world is not merely a place in which to get things, but a field of loving service for all humanity."

Mrs. B. F. Langworthy, responding to the toast, "The Rights of Modern Woman,"

"It is not suffice that I am going to talk about this evening because there are other things nearer my heart. The first right due every woman is to have well born children. Every woman should demand the right to raise her children free from the grinding opposition of a heartless capitalism. She should demand that a high moral atmosphere surround the child who leaves the home every day for school."

Mrs. Landworthy spoke of the moral dangers arising from unregulated dancing, lack of home training and unrestrained moving picture shows. In "Economic Rights," Mrs. W. J. Stevenson, emphasized the method and manner of living wisely and well. "I believe for every man a vote and for every woman a vote and a home, I would have every girl given domestic training in the grades and in the high school. Then she should be able to make a good home-keeper. A girl needs a training for home-making as much as an engineer needs education in his highly technical problems. It might not be a bad idea to have visiting housekeeping experts, who would call and diagnose our house-keeping methods."

Dr. C. H. Rammelkamp of Illinois college was heard on the subject, "Parents and Colleges." He said the college question differed fundamentally from that of the public school on account of the greater liberty allowed the college student, and on account of the fact that the boy who goes to college is away from home. Two problems present themselves in consideration of "parents and colleges." What college shall the boy attend? and what kind of a course shall be select? In the solution of both of these questions, parents can be of great assistance.

In her toast on "The Congressional Record," Mrs. J. A. Parsons called to mind the felicity with which this organization had been named. It is no mere gathering of women, but an influential body, a congress of mothers. She touched upon the work of the Mothers' congress, of its stand against child labor, for the establishment of juvenile courts and for the maintenance of free kindergartens.

The address by Dr. Joseph R. Harker, president of the Woman's college, on "The College and the Home," closed the program as announced. "It is necessary to begin with the building of a home if we wish to prepare for the building of a college. As soon as a child is born, we should look ahead and plan for its higher education. We should at all times hold the ideal of a better home, a better childhood and a better school."

At the School for the Deaf. The ladies arrived at the Illinois School for the Deaf at 3 o'clock and proceeded to the chapel where they were welcomed by Charles P. Gillett, the superintendent. Demonstrations were given of the work of the school in lip reading, development of language and elementary arithmetic. The primary work was shown by the classes of Miss Josephine Arandino and Mrs. Helen Johnson.

A fourth year class taught by Miss Idella Walton demonstrated the instruction in arithmetic. Explanations of class room methods were given from time to time by Superintendent, Gillette and the head teacher, Miss Frances Wood. A tour of inspection followed this glimpse of the state's methods in taking care of the deaf. The library, the work in textiles and domestic science, the shoe and cabinet shops, the printing office and photographic department were each paid a visit. Especial interest was manifested in the work in weaving rugs, as this is the only school for the deaf in the United States conducting such a process. In the printing department, the visitors saw the weekly issue of the school paper "The Illinois Advance" just coming from the press. A number expressed admiration for the workmanship to be seen in the cabinet shop.

A Glimpse of Long Ago. An interesting picture of days long gone was afforded the ladies by the girls of Illinois college in the one act play, "Miss Adams Makes a Suggestion." The hall of Sigma Pi literary society to which the delegates adjourned from the deaf and dumb institution, had been prepared with a special stage for this novel representation of the past. In her address of introduction and welcome, Mrs. C. H. Rammelkamp, wife of the president of the college, told something of the history of the Ladies Educational society, an early meeting of which the play was written to reproduce, and spoke of the circumstances of its dramatization by Mrs. Schuman Leavitt, wife of the professor of chemistry. The eight college girls who took part, together with Mrs. Leavitt, who was seen in the role of Mrs. Edward Beecher, wife of the first president of Illinois college, were dressed in old style costumes, some of which dated from 1839 the time of the organization of the society. As explained by Mrs. Rammelkamp, "The Association for the Education of Females," as the society was then called has helped over seventeen hundred to get an education. The charter members represented were Mrs. Beecher, Mrs. J. M. Sturtevant, wife of the first instructor and second president of Illinois college; Mrs. Theron Baldwin, wife of the first president of Monticello seminary; Mrs. Elihu Wolcott, hostess and president, Miss Emily Adams, treasurer, Miss Coffin, secretary, Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Gillette, and Mrs. Wilkinson. These parts were taken by Mrs. Sherman Leavitt, and Misses Elizabeth Struck, L. Dale Wyatt, Maude Johnson, Edith Enzva, Julia Huff, Alice Gunn, Nathalia Jensen, and Iva Mae Brown respectively.

At School for Blind. Delegates to the Congress of Mothers were the guests of Superintendent and Mrs. R. W. Woolston at the School for the Blind Thursday at 1:30 o'clock when a very interesting program was given for them.

Following an address of welcome by a kindergarten pupil and a talk by Superintendent Woolston the delegates were given a demonstration of writing on dial Braille Writers, Braille slate, typewriter and stereotyping machine by the High school pupils. Three musical numbers were then given, a Kindergarten chorus, vocal solo and a violin quartet by grade boys and their instructor, Prof. Meyers. The next number was a demonstration of club swinging by high school boys followed by an organ solo and the senior chorus. The program closed with a very instructive paper by Dr. A. L. Adams.

Following the program the delegates examined an exhibit of the work of the pupils, which was arranged in the chapel. The exhibit consisted of manual training work, basketry, etc. and the delegates thoroughly enjoyed their visit.

The reports of officers and the presentation of state work by chairmen of state committees occupied the Thursday morning session of the Mother's congress. A board meeting from 9 until 9:30 o'clock was the first event on the program, followed by a cantata by the Treble Clef club of the High school, under the direction of Miss Ailsie Goodrick. Thirty three girls took part in this cantata, which was entitled "The Struggle." After the cantata the program most highly enjoyed was the reading by Miss Amanda Kidder, head of the department of expression at the Woman's College, entitled "The Young Immigrant's Story." It was written by a vice-president of the Congress, Mrs. Alfred Bayliss, of Macomb, and was read by Miss Kidder by request.

The reports given by the recording secretary, Mrs. Lawson Gilbert; the corresponding secretary, Mrs. T. Honacker, and the president, Mrs. L. D. Doty, all of Chicago, spoke well of the past years work in the organization. The report of Mrs. G. T. Eggers the treasurer showed a nominal working balance on hand.

The chairmen of the state committees were heard after the reports of the officers had been completed. In the absence of Mrs. Blouke, the report of the press committee, was read by Mrs. B. F. Langworthy. She called attention to the long service of Mrs. Edgar Hall on this committee putting a motion for a vote of thanks for her excellent work.

News of the work in social service was read by Mrs. Gallion of Blue Island, who took the place of Mrs. E. L. Bay of Chicago. The improvement of playgrounds and the use of the school as a social center were discussed. The efforts of the South Side club of Blue Island to raise $1,000 for local playground improvement, was mentioned in this connection. In talking on "Country Life" Mrs. O. J. Kern, of Rockford emphasized the possibilities for reform wrapped up in the child of the farmer; the abuse likely to be corrected when the youth of the rural districts are awake to their opportunities. Mrs. James Costello gave an extemporaneous account of the purposes of the magazine committee in the absence of the regular chairman, Mrs. W. J. Benson. She urged more members to subscribe for the national organ of the Congress of

"I have suffered with pains in my back and under my shoulder blades for a number of years, also with a poor appetite and constipation. I tried all of the remedies that I heard of, and a number of doctors, but got no relief. Finally a friend told me to try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. I got a bottle of them and they soon helped my stomach; by their gentle action my bowels became more regular. Today I feel like praising them to all who suffer as I did, for me and made my life worth living."

CIGAR MAKERS UNION ISSUES STATEMENT

EXPLAINS POINTS OF DIS-AGREEMENT BETWEEN MAN-UFACTURERS AND EMPLOYEES.

Apprentice Law is Bone of Contention—Men Maintain They Are Right and That They Will Stand By Declaration—New Rule Becomes Effective May 19.

Inasmuch as an article has appeared in both daily papers of this city concerning a matter involving the cigar manufacturers and the members of the cigar makers union, and inasmuch as these articles have tended to prejudice the public against the union, therefore we will submit the following facts:

It is stated in Sunday's Journal that "after a series of differences it was determined by the management of the Franks Cigar Co. to discontinue the making of cigars in Jacksonville, and instead, to have their product made in Pennsylvania shops." Mr. Franks has for some time been trying to influence the public into the idea that the union drove him to this act, and it is reported that he is now trying to induce other manufacturers into the belief that they are being driven into a similar act by the union.

Let the public be undeceived. Mr. Franks was not driven to do what he did. He did it voluntarily, the consequences are his.

On the corner of West and North streets there stands a large building, empty and silent, which up to January 1st last, was busy place.

The rules governing the use of the union label, which is the property of the C. M. I. U. of A., had been in force many years, and had been in use in that factory, respected by Mr. Franks and his predecessors in business. These rules have since applied in all other factories. The "differences" referred to by the Journal mean that Mr. Franks wanted to be an exception to the rule. He wanted special favors. First, he wanted the privilege of making his employees make certain cigars for the 10c trade, to be sold for 10c prices but not of the regular 10c quality. He was to get his profit from this, but when it came to paying his workmen he proposed to pay 5c prices, contrary to our established price list, previously accepted by him. When we showed him our bill of prices he said we did not construe our price list rightly, and proceeded to tell us just what we meant when we made our bill of price. We told him that we made our bill of prices and knew what we wanted. We did not want to be made a party to a plan which had for its object the ultimate ruin of our legitimate bill of prices on 10c work.

Mr. Franks pretended that we were "putting him under the ground," as he expressed it, and tried to intimidate us by locking us out till we consented to his plan, but after eleven days, sent for us, and reopened his factory again, but was emphatic in his remarks to our president of the union at the time, that "the next time that we started trouble he would close his factory and nail up the doors." These are his exact words.

Things went along well for a few months until Mr. Franks conceived the idea that it was time for us to again start trouble. (He wanted a pretext to put us out on the street and flaunt union made cigars made in Pennsylvania in our faces and inveigle the public into the belief that he was being made a victim by the Jacksonville union. Hence he abused our apprentice law, and upon our calling his attention to this he again told us that we did not rightly construe our apprentice law.

We who made our own apprentice law did not know what we wanted all these years; laws which he had previously respected.

We informed Mr. Franks that the collective memory of the union was not deficient. We knew what we wanted and happened to remember our wants. Thereupon he closed his factory and informed the union that he had quit manufacturing. His brands are now being made in Pennsylvania where all conditions and standards of life are cheaper than here. We leave it to your good judgment as to who "started the trouble" in Mr. Franks' factory.

Now as to the relation that this bears to the present situation. Let us remark that the only difference now between us is the apprentice law. Up to about 1894 the apprentice law of Union 114 was on a par with the average apprentice laws of the various unions, not over five to a shop, regardless of size of shop. To this day the vast majority of apprentice laws do not allow of a larger limit, many of them a smaller limit. None as large as ours.

About 1894 Mr. Kent appeared before the union with the proposition, that as an inducement for a manufacturer who aimed to operate a large factory, the union should adopt an apprentice law without setting a limit on the number of apprentices, intimating that this would afford a manufacturer a chance to reduce the cost per thousand cigars and give him a larger profit. That we would gain by it, in that he would provide steady work for a large number of men. His aim was to run a factory of 300 to 400 men. According to this plan it would give him from 40 to 60 apprentices. An appalling abnormal condition. And yet, we fell for it, we confided in his dream though not dreaming of the hidden dangers of the plan. The present apprentice law was the result, and if there is anyone who attributes the troubles within the past few years to the union, let us inform them that they are in error. All the troubles grew out of this abnormal apprentice law, and we can prove it to anyone who cares to confer with us.

The apprentice law as it will affect the smaller factories was made by the convention of the C. M. I. U. of A. The apprentice law as it will affect the large factories was made by local union No. 114 and approved by the C. M. I. U. of A. and is destined to remove the cause of bad effects.

The cigar packers are members of the same union as are the cigar makers. They pay for the same protection and are entitled to the same protection. They failed to get this under the old apprentice law, nor could the law afford it, try as we may to attempt to apply it. The large manufacturers took advantage of the packers by threatening to discharge them if they would not accept $10.00 per week as pay where in reality they were earning more, and would put apprentices in their places and through fear of losing their jobs they accepted $10.00 per week. The union was powerless to remedy this under the old apprentice law. Hence it was time to alter it in order to provide the same protection to the packers as we claimed to enjoy ourselves.

Acting under the guidance of the laws of the C. M. I. U. of A., which are ratified by the membership at large, and which this local has no right to abridge or nullify, and in common justice and the light of reason, the combined wisdom and judgment of the Jacksonville local union sought to crystallize its ideas into a law which would afford protection to all members alike, and we believe we have solved it in the law which will take effect on May 19 next.

Under the present arrangement of society, men are permitted to engage in business and to employ labor for profit. We do not dispute this right. On the other hand, labor is permitted to organize and set a price and establish certain rules for their protection to the right to labor, and to better their condition.

As an emblem of good faith of this mutual recognition the C. M. I. U. of A. provides free of cost to the manufacturer the blue label for cigars made by them. The establishment and use of this label has been accomplished through the expenditure of much money and energy by the members of the unions, and the abuse of the laws governing the use of the label either by the manufacturer or union members is met with by the C. M. I. U. of A. by withdrawing it from the local union, and making the members accountable for its acts.

Thus it can be readily understood that a local union is only a guardian of the union label. Its use is through faithful trust. Its misuse is a mistrust.

In conclusion we will say that if we are to lose our work because we dare to stand for that which we believe to be right, then we stand ready to seek work elsewhere.

Cigar Makers Union No. 114.

DALLAS PREPARES FOR SHRINERS.

Dallas, Texas, May 8.—The annual meeting of imperial council, ancient Arabic Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, will be held in Dallas next week, beginning Monday, and it is estimated that 35,000 or more visitors will be in the city. Every section of the country will be represented.

Monday will be devoted to the reception of the visitors and to sight-seeing trips about the city. Tuesday will be featured by the morning parade of bands and patrols acting as an official escort to the imperial officers to the place of meeting of the imperial council. At night the big spectacular Shrine pageant will take place, following which the delegates will be entertained at a Mexican dinner and vaudeville show at the fair grounds.

Wednesday the patrols and bands will assemble for battalion formation and exhibition drills for rich prizes to be awarded by the executive committee. Late in the afternoon there will be a barbecue and a grand spectacle illustrating pioneer days in the southwest. A reception and ball will be given Wednesday night.

The last half of the week following the close of the imperial council sessions, will be devoted by many of the delegates and their families to a grand 1,000 mile tour of Texas, Galveston, Houston, Waco, San Antonio, Austin and other of the principal cities will be visited.

An army of decorators is already at work dressing up the downtown section of Dallas in anticipation of the coming of the Shriner. The night illuminations will be among the most brilliant ever seen in an American city. From all the trolley support wires along the leading thoroughfares are being hung immense Shrine emblems of the scimitar and crescent. The emblems are painted in white and gold and on each side illuminated by incandescent lights. On each side of the emblems will be suspended American, Texas and Shrine flags.

FLAG RAISING AT STARVED ROCK

Illinois Daughters of Revolution to Take Part in the Historic Ceremony.

The Bloomington Pantagraph published the following article in regards to the raising of the American flag at Starved Rock:

Patriotic women of Illinois will make Saturday, June 14, next, one of the most notable days in this history of the state. On that date, the Daughters of the American Revolution, every chapter in the state to be represented, and other women from the various similar organizations, will assemble at Starved Rock, the famous historical pile in Illinois' new public park, recently acquired, and will raise the stars and stripes upon a lofty flag pole to be located on the highest point of the picturesque mound. With inspiring ceremonies the flag will be raised, to float forever. An appropriation from the state treasury of the Daughters provides for the renewal of each flag as it becomes tattered and torn from the action of the elements. The custodian of the park will substitute as soon as the old shows signs of becoming threadbare. Visitors to the park for all time to come, and those passing the rock in craft on the waters of the Illinois river below, will always be greeted by the national emblem floating in the breeze. The lofty site will make it possible to see the flag for many miles. The sight of the red, white and blue banner, always visible from the summit of the historical rock, will no doubt be an inspiration to all.

Notables to Be There.

The program to be given in connection with the flag raising, is now in preparation and will be of a notable character. Gov. Edward Dunne, Senators J. H. Lewis and L. Y. Sherman and others prominent in the public life of the state and nation, will be invited to attend and deliver addresses. Mrs. M. T. Scott, of Bloomington, retiring president general, will have a part in the arrangements, and a number of women from outside states, prominent in the organization, will also be in attendance. It is expected that many thousands will be present, as special trains will be run to the new park all over Illinois.

There will be widespread interest in flag day at Starved Rock, beyond all others, the spot in Illinois of greatest historical interest and most picturesque beauty, ranking in scenic grandeur with Yellowstone park and other famed resorts of the Rockies. Extraordinary to relate, with all of its historic associations, closely bound with the memories of LaSalle, Marquette and Tonti, until the present period nothing has been done to commemorate the great mound of sandstone, the tombs of the last remnant of the Illini. The purchase of this resort by the state for park purposes will forever redound to the credit of the commonwealth.

Great Historic Site.

Starved Rock, teeming with history and legend, was the axis of the French operations in Illinois, operations at once brilliant with romance and grim with dogged courage and endurance. They were attended with greater dangers than mark a twentieth century dash to the pole or a tour of the country in an aeroplane. At Starved Rock park was located the most populous Indian town in America. About the shaded canons clinging wonderful legends of the Red men and weird bits of Indian history, some of it interwoven for the time with that of its dauntless French explorers.

Fathers Marquette and Joliet, with a party of soldiers, in five canoes, visited the rock in 1673, making their way up the Illinois river. An exploring party of Frenchmen, including LaSalle, Tonti and Hennepin, visited the rock seven years later and erected Fort St. Louis upon the summit in 1682. With the completion of the fort, Tonti assembled the Miami from Lake Michigan and the Shawnees from the Wabash, fully twenty thousand in all, and extended to them full protection against their mutual enemy, the feared Iroquois of New York. In a terrific battle with the latter, Tonti succeeded in defeating them and drove them back to the east, where they were forced to sue for peace.

The Second Epoch.

The French abandoned the Starved Rock and Illinois river route between Canada and the Gulf of Mexico in 1702, and for one hundred years the rock appeared to drop from the pages of history. Finally, the Kaskaskias followed the French to a new home. The Pottowatomies came down from Canada and the three tribes united, becoming known as the Illini, or Illini. The Illinois river was made the line of defense with forts at Joliet, Marseilles, Peoria and Starved Rock. After the close of the French and Indian war, the English wrested Canada and the territory between Ohio and the Mississippi river from the French. The Indians, dissatisfied with the English, attempted to expel them, Pontiac, a great chief of the Ottawas, forming a confederacy of the western tribes. He was defeated at Detroit in 1763 and was murdered at Cahokia five years later. The Indians then became suspicious of each other. Pottowatomies and the Ottawas began a war of extermination against the Illini. Although aided by the Kickapoos on the south, the Illini were at last driven to the shelter of Starved Rock, the stronghold fortified by LaSalle and Tonti. Unable to make their way to the top of the rock while the Illini were in possession, the revengeful enemy laid siege, killing all who attempted to escape, while starvation terminated the lives of the remainder.

Other Memories of Place.

It has been felt for many years that a place so rich in historical associations should not be left to the ordinary spirit of the age. It was the first central point of white civilization in the Mississippi valley. There Marquette sacrificed his life in founding the mission of the immaculate Conception. There was to have been the center of the realization of LaSalle's dream of a great French empire and it was there that Tonti built Fort St. Louis, long since crumbled into dust. While shadowy memories of the long ago will ever linger, yet Starved Rock will soon more vividly in the future than it ever did in the past, figuring as it will in the setting of the great public park as its chief gem.

Future of the Park.

Since the recent purchase of the rock and surrounding grounds by the state, all admission fees have been abolished and everything is free to the public. A system of roads is to be constructed in order to make the resort easily accessible for automobile and other tourists. Walks are to be laid out which will enable visitors to reach the various canons without danger or discomfort. To the student of geology the uplifted and exposed St. Peters sandstone, Trenton limestone, coal measures, etc., together with volcanic action and water erosion all within a three mile radius of the rock, offers a field of study which can not be duplicated in the west. It was in a forge at Fort St. Louis on the summit of Starved Rock that coal was first used for fuel in the new world. From the meager outcroppings of the rock came the black diamonds which have been such an important factor in the wealth of the nation and in making Illinois one of the great states of the union. It will be a subject of general rejoicing that Starved Rock has come into its own as the great beauty spot of Illinois, as the great beauty spot of Illinois, free to all of its people, and, as such, it will be jealously preserved for all time to come.

Mother's Friend in Every Home

Comfort and Safety Assured Before the Arrival of the Stork.

The old saying—what is home without a mother—should add "Mother's Friend." In thousands of American homes there is a bottle of this splendid and famous remedy that has aided many a woman through the trying ordeal, saved her from suffering and pain, kept her in health of mind and body in advance of baby's coming and had a most wonderful influence in developing a healthy, lovely disposition in the child.

There is no other remedy so truly a help to nature as Mother's Friend. It relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the ligaments, makes plant those fibres and muscles which nature is expanding and soothes the inflammation of breast glands.

WASHINGTON HURLERS

DRIVE THREE PITCHERS OFF
THE MOUND AND WIN GAME
10 TO 5.

Groom, Gallia, Boehling and Cashion Take Their Turns in Facing the Chicago Batsmen—Russell Pitches
Winning Ball Except in Sixth.

CHICAGO, MAY 8.—Chicago played a batting game today, driving three of the Washington pitchers off the mound and winning 10 to 5.
Groom opened for the visitors, but was weakened by the fourth inning and was relieved by Gallia, who retired to allow Schaefer to bat for him.
Boehling took up the pitching in the sixth inning and retired when Gandil, who has been out of the game several days on account of an injury, batted for him. Cashion finished the game.

Russell pitched for the locals and not a runner reached first base until the fifth, when Morgan drew a pass.
However, in the sixth inning with none out, three singles, a triple and an infield out gave Washington four runs. A single, an error and a sacrifice fly gave the visitors their fifth run. The score:

EVER'S MISTAKES LEAD TO CHICAGO'S DEFEAT

MANAGER'S ERRORS PAVE
WAY FOR BROOKLYN RUNS.

Both Lavender and Rucker Were Effective Each Allowing But Three Hits—Final Score Chicago 1
Brooklyn 2.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., MAY 8.—
Brooklyn defeated Chicago by 2 to 1 today, largely through Manager
Evers' errors, two of his three mis-plays paving the way for Brooklyn's two runs.

Both pitchers were effective. Chicago's run was scored by Schulte on a hit by pitcher, a steal, Miller's wild throw and an out.

Brooklyn's first tally came in the third when Morgan reached first on Evers' fumble and was forced by Cutshaw.

The latter stole second and commenced on an out and Wheat's scratch hit. Daubert scored the winning run on an error by Evers, a steal.
Fisher's infield hit and Miller's sacrifice fly. The game ended sensationally when Miller ran toward the grandstand for Archer's foul and doubled up Phelan stealing.

CLEAN UP.

Everybody cleans house in the spring. Why not clean up the yards and the alleys adjacent to your property. Jacksonville will have several conventions here within the next few weeks. The city is doing its part in the work of cleaning up. Why not help us. Every city in the state at the present time has a house cleaning week. Jacksonville should have one. Therefore set aside the week of May 5 for a general house cleaning and would ask all citizens to take part in it and make it a success. The department of streets and public improvements will furnish teams to haul away your refuse if it is placed in a convenient place and a notification sent to O. H. Spaulding, superintendent of streets.

George W. Davis, Mayor.

The Gold Dust Twins' Philosophy

ONE day, when Mr. Jones returned with what his weekly toil had earned, he found his little wife in tears and mood not suited to her years. It seemed the cook had bade "adieu," likewise the washerwoman, too.

Gold Dust as Strike Breaker

At first within the House of Jones there followed sad despondent moans. No hopeful word could reconcile, no honied kiss inspire a smile. "I never knew before" said she, "how horrid household cares could be."

"Upon my word I'm up at six and working still as midnight ticks. I scrub and run and wash and shine to keep the little things in line, and yet around me here and there I see undone another share."

Now Mr. Jones was passing wise and later, sprang a glad surprise. Through friends who praised the "GOLD DUST WAY," he brought a package home one day.

From tears to sunshine, Wifey now has found the good of "Knowing How" and striking servants fail to stir, the placid calm content of her.

Women Avoid Operations

When a woman suffering from some form of feminine disorder is told that an operation is necessary, it of course frightens her.

The very thought of the hospital operating table and the surgeon's knife strikes terror to her heart, and no wonder. It is quite true that some of these troubles may reach a stage where an operation is the only resource, but thousands of women have avoided the necessity of an operation by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. This fact is attested by the grateful letters they write to us after their health has been restored.

These Two Women Prove Our Claim.

Cary, Maine.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and was fat and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your medicine."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Cary, Me.

Charlotte, N. C.—"I was in bad health for two years, with pains in both sides and was very nervous. If I even lifted a chair it would cause a hemorrhage. I had a growth which the doctor said was a tumor and I never would get well unless I had an operation. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I gladly say that I am now enjoying fine health and am the mother of a nice baby girl. You can use this letter to help other suffering women."—Mrs. ROSA SIMS, 16 Wyona St., Charlotte, N. C.

Now answer this question if you can. Why should a woman submit to a surgical operation without first giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial? You know that it has saved many others—why should it fail in your case?

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

DOMINION IN OLD MISSOURI.

Ozark Mountains, Mo.
Dear Journal and Friends:
We have made another move and we are well satisfied with our new camp. You will probably wonder why we are here and what we came for. We will tell you. The Ozarks were the last place we visited on our journey south last fall and we found such clever people and so much good rations, with the pure atmosphere and fine scenery that we concluded to run over and take a genuine rest before we took up our residence in our own good land. We find that you do not have to go to Florida for health. Go to the Ozarks for health and south for recreation. We also have a brother living here in the Ozarks and he has one of the finest women in the state for his wife, intelligent, clever and a fine cook, surrounded by the finest neighbors you ever heard of, but we missed our favorite little neighbor, whom we knew four years ago, Mrs. Nevin, she having moved away, to the sorrow of the whole neighborhood. Another excuse is the fact that our brother was in the federal army with Gen. J. H. Hooker and saw much service at Chattanooga and surrounding country and after we had been over the country we could gain much information from him and we wanted to write a letter from Chattanooga to our old friends in Morgan county who became well acquainted with the town and the surrounding country.

We arrived at Chattanooga on the afternoon of the 28th of April, just after a good rain, and the atmosphere being in perfect condition for seeing at a distance, we decided to "make hay while the sun shined." We went out next morning on the interurban, about fifteen miles, to the battlefield of Chickamauga. But before we tell you anything about the field we want to tell our friends something about the city. If you remember, you found Chattanooga an insignificant little town, situated on the Tennessee river. Now you find one of the finest and best built cities of the south, of over 100,000 inhabitants, situated in the most lovely and scenic part of the whole southland. Where the old military bridge once stood has been erected a fine wagon and street car bridge across the Tennessee river. When standing on this bridge you have one of the most lovely landscape views any one could wish to see. Opposite from Chattanooga is quite a little village and there is also a good farming country. From the bridge one can see the historical Lookout Mountain, a good part of Missionary Ridge, a glimpse of Moccasin Bend and almost within a stone's throw, the rocky promontory where was mounted the famous Smartt battery of Chestnut's division, that commanded the river. Now this place is built up with the finest residences.

Chattanooga is becoming wealthy, but they are not putting on any airs, but striving to get ahead and become the great commercial center of the middle south, the civil war made Chattanooga.

Now we will go back to the battlefield, not as you fellows went at that memorable time, with your big guns, muskets and all the appurtenances of bloody war; instead of a gun, we carried a field glass, and instead of a fiery steed, we rode a new automobile, driven by an exceedingly nice young man by the name of E. F. Sanders. We selected for our guide an old confederate veteran who was born within a few miles of the battlefield, fought all through the battle, had a brother killed on the field and was an intelligent man, a good talker, accommodating and a perfect gentleman. His name is J. P. Theford, and when you go to Chattanooga you will do well to look him up and employ him to show you over the grounds. Dear friends we would be glad to tell you all we saw on the battlefield of Chickamauga, Missionary Ridge and Lookout Mountain, for we believe every object would be of interest to some one, but you know it would take time and column after column to tell you a small part. The field contains 7,000 acres, with 64 miles of good roadways, 600 monuments, 300 cannons and innumerable tables. The cannon mark the line of battle, in general, but the monuments prove that it was a mixed affair. We saw more Illinois monuments on this field than of any other state and we feel proud when we saw our state monument, erected to the brave men who fell in line of duty on this memorable field.

By the position of the cannon one can figure out very easily why the union army was compelled to retreat. The confederates managed to get a crossfire on their foes and there was nothing else to do but to fall back; but they did it so stubbornly that it made the battle one of the bloodiest of the war. Probably many of our old boys will remember Snodgrass hill, a small mound with an open field, where the federals were compelled to charge the confederate batteries, on the opposite side, in the timber. When one looks at this position he wonders how any one could ever cross that field and live, but they did; not only cross, but recross, making this field the hottest spot of one of the bloodiest fights in history. Our guide fought here and he informed us that one could walk across the field on dead bodies, adding "Sherman's definition of war is correct."

Being a fine day for the occasion we decided to take the whole day for the purpose of sightseeing, so we turned for Missionary Ridge, where there is a good road. The top of the ridge is marked with monuments, cannon and tablets, the view grand and the air exhilarating.

Our guide pointed out where the Yankees scaled the ridge in the very face of the confederate batteries. We remarked that it looked to us like an impossibility for an army to come up such a place under such circumstances, but the old fellow shook his head and said, "They shure came up that and then we had business on the other side of the ridge." Missionary Ridge is now a fine place. Some of the finest residences of the city are located here, far above the smoke, noise and turmoil of the city. The south side is being developed as a fruit and vegetable center and we are of the opinion that there is something doing, as there is being finished a tunnel through the ridge for the purpose of getting their products to the Chattanooga market. From the ridge we went down through the National cemetery, which is of vast proportions and well kept, but we never did think cemeteries were exhilarating or any place for fun, so our stay was short and we pulled for the mountain.

The ascension of Lookout Mountain is a pleasure, when made in a good machine, with a careful driver. Of course there is danger, but we preferred going in a machine to the trolley, which runs directly up the side of the mountain and will take you up and down for 75 cents, but this was no inducement to Mrs. Mc.

The old boys who fought that much talked of and romantic battle above the clouds would be much surprised to find a town on the top of the mountain, but such is the case and it is a lovely place for a town, as far as good air, scenery and sanitation is concerned. No one can describe the beauties of the view from this position. With our glass we could see directly down into the city, Moccasin Bend on the opposite of the river seemed only a few steps away. Missionary Ridge looks like a small ridge, the fifteen story houses like doll houses, Walden's Ridge, where many of the Illinois boys did business guarding supply trains, is visible and we could look off into seven different states, over timbered ridges until the eyes became tired and one feels like going into a dark room for a good rest, not for his eyes alone but for his brain also. Probably we did the wrong thing by taking this long drive in one day, but were afraid it would be smoky on any other day, and we were right, for the next day and the next and so on were smoky and we were glad that we had done what we had in good times, although a 75 mile ride, mixed up with more or less of walking makes one feel like eating a good supper and enjoying a good long sleep.

That reminds us that we feel that way now and will say goodbye. D. K. and Mrs. McCarty.

Mrs. George Gardner and daughter Louise of White Hall were among the visitors in the city yesterday.

THE WORLD'S LATEST FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

STOCK MOVEMENT NARROW AND LIFELESS

NEITHER SIDE OF THE MARKET IS DISPOSED TO TAKE THE INITIATIVE.

Market Yesterday Approached a State of Deadlock—None of the Speculative Stocks Moved a Point Above or Below the Preceding Day's Close.

(By Associated Press)
New York, May 8.—Speculation drifted back into a lethargic condition today, and movements of stocks were narrow and meaningless. The sharp fluctuations earlier in the week seemed to have exhausted the resources of traders for the time being and on neither side of the market was there a disposition to take the initiative.

In the face of yesterday's brisk rally bear traders made no attempt to operate extensively. At the same time the market still reflected the lack of buying power, the recent upturn apparently having been little more than demonstrations against the short interest. Under these conditions the market approached a state of deadlock today. None of the leading speculative stocks moved a point above or below yesterday's close.

This apathetic condition as illustrated by the market's singular lack of responsiveness to two important developments. The government crop report, showing an improvement over the previous estimates, themselves highly satisfactory and an indicated winter wheat crop of 513,000,000 bushels, compared with an indicated yield a year ago of 370,000,000 bushels.

Publication of this report fell flat as a stock market influence.

The monthly figures of the copper producers, the second development revealed a shrinkage in stocks on hand of nearly 29,000,000 pounds. Although a decline had been predicted, the amount was much in excess of estimates, bringing down the stocks of the metal to the smallest figure reported since last September.

A slight advance in Amalgamated occurred after the appearance of the figures, but otherwise the showing passed unnoticed in the market.

There were a few weak features. Canadian Pacific was depressed more than two points in selling from Montreal. Chesapeake & Ohio, regarding which there has been talk of a possible cut in dividend, touched a new low figure for the year at 62%.

CONDITION OF WINTER WHEAT 91.9 PER CENT

AREA REMAINING TO BE HAR-VESTED MAY 1, WAS 30,938,000
ACRES.

Average Condition of Wheat of 91.9
Per Cent of Normal Compares Favorably With 91.6 Per Cent on April 1st and 85.6 Per Cent the Ten Year Average.

Washington, May 8.—The first official estimate of the size of the crop of winter wheat was made today in the May Crop report of the Crop Reporting Board, Bureau of Statistics, United States Department of Agriculture, issued at 2:15 p. m.
The report shows the condition on May 1 of winter wheat, rye, meadow lands and pastures; the percentage of spring plowing and spring planting completed; the acreage of winter wheat to be harvested; the estimated outturn of winter wheat crop and the stocks of hay on farms May 1.
The figures are:

Winter Wheat.
The average condition of winter wheat on May 1 was 91.9 per cent of a normal; compared with 91.6 per cent on April 1; 79.7 per cent on May 1, 1912 and 85.6 per cent the average for the past ten years
on May 1.

The area of winter wheat remaining on May 1 to be harvested was about 30,938,000 acres, or 1,449,000 acres less than the area planted last autumn, but 4,367,000 acres more than the area harvested last year,
(26,571,000 acres.)

The condition on May 1 is indicative of a yield per acre of approximately 16.6 bushels, assuming average variations to prevail thereafter. On the estimated area to be harvested this would produce a final crop of 513,571,000 bushels, compared with 399,919,000 bushels in 1912, 430,656,000 bushels in 1911, 434,142,000 bushels in 1910 and 417,780,000 bushels in 1909. The out turn of the crop probably will be above or below the figures here given according as the condition from May 1 to time of harvest is above or below the average change.

Rye.
The condition of rye on May 1 was 91.0 per cent of a normal, compared with 89.3 per cent on April 1; 87.5
per cent on May 1, 1912, and 89.6
per cent the average for the past ten years on May 1.

Meadow or Hay Lands.
The average condition of meadow,
or hay, lands on May 1 was 88.5 per cent of a normal, compared with 85.7 per cent on May 1, 1912, and a ten year average on May 1 of 88.5
per cent.

Hay on Farms.—The stocks of hay on farms on May 1 were estimated to be 10,828,000 tons, compared with 4,744,000 tons on May 1, 1912, and 8,673,000 on May 1, 1911.

Pasture.—The average condition of pastures on May 1 was 87.1 per cent of a normal, compared with 81.7 per cent on May 1, 1912, and a ten year average on May 1 of 86.1
per cent.

Spring Plowing.—Of spring plowing 67.2 per cent was completed up to May 1, compared with 52.8 per cent on May 1, 1912, and a ten-year average on May 1 of 65.7 per cent.

Spring Planting.—Of spring plant-

SOUTHERN BAPTISTS TO MEET.

St. Louis, May 7.—St. Louis is preparing for the entertainment of the Southern Baptist convention, which will meet here next week for its annual session. The convention is the largest delegated body in the world, and is usually attended by 1,500 accredited delegates and many visitors. The territory of the convention lies wholly in the southern states, the division between north and south having been made in 1845. The convention devotes itself to a review of the theological, publication, missionary, educational and other activities of the denomination and to a consideration of plans for the future.

Are You Subject to Constipation

Here is a Simple Way of Correcting
It Instantly Before It Becomes Chronic.

Very few people go through life without some time or other being troubled with constipation. Thousands injure themselves by the use of strong cathartics, salt mineral waters, pills and similar things. They have temporary value in some cases, it is true, but the good effect is soon lost, and the more one takes of them the less effective they become.

A physic or purgative is seldom necessary, and much better and more permanent results can be obtained by using a scientific remedy like Dr.
Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It does not hide behind a high sounding name, but is what it is represented to be, a mild laxative medicine. It is so mild that thousands of mothers give it to their infants, and yet it so compounded and contains such definite ingredients that it will have equally good effect when used by a person suffering from the worst chronic constipation. In fact, among the greatest endorers of Syrup Pepsin are elderly people who have suffered for years and found nothing to benefit them until they took Syrup Pepsin.

It is a fact that millions of families have Syrup Pepsin constantly in the house, homes like those of Mrs.
G. B. Pruitt, Berea, Ky., who used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin as a laxative tonic. Mrs. Pruitt writes that it so strengthened and cleansed her system that she was quickly relieved of a severe cough which had troubled her for months. The special value of this grand laxative tonic is that it is suited to the needs

MRS. C. B. PRUITT

of every member of the family. It is pleasant tasting mild and non-grin-ing. Unlike harsh physic it works gradually and in a very brief time the stomach and bowel muscles are trained to do their work naturally again, when all medicines can be dispensed with.

You can obtain a bottle at any drug-store for fifty cents or one dollar. The latter size is usually bought by families who already know its value. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.

If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it before buying it in the regular way of a druggist, send your address
—a postal card will do—to Dr. W.
B. Caldwell, 417 Washington street, Monticello, Ill., and a free sample bottle will be mailed you.

ENDOWMENT FUND STARTED FOR Y. M. C. A.

BEQUEST OF FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS IS MADE.

Woman's Christian Association Oldest Philanthropic Organization of City Dissolves and Gives Gift.

The board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. held an important business meeting last night after partaking of an excellent supper served by Madames Watt, Brewer and Patchen. James Schofield, General Secretary of the Bloomington Y. M. C. A. met with the board and presented the cause of the institute and training school of the Young Men's Christian Association recently organized in Chicago to meet the needs of the middle west and southwest for trained association workers. The demand is far greater than the supply, 329 men being needed every year to meet the demand.

It is proposed to raise $500,000 to equip and partially endow this institute. A site in South Chicago near the University of Chicago has already been secured at a cost of $50,000. Chicago proposes to raise $250,000. The balance is to be prorated among nineteen states, Illinois' share being $22,500. Mr. Schofield visit and words of counsel along the lines of association work were greatly appreciated by the board.

A communication from the Woman's Christian Association, given below will no doubt meet with the hearty approval of the many friends of the association. Organized at about the same time the Y. M. C. A. has been for the girls and women in our midst what the Y. M. C. A. has been doing for the boys and young men.

The latter association by the terms of the bequest is to receive $500 to be used as the nucleus of a permanent endowment fund, only the income from which is to be used for current expenses. This is a splendid beginning and no doubt will be the forerunner of other bequest of a like nature.

History of Y. W. C. A.

The Woman's Christian Association was organized in 1871 by some of the noblest women of Jacksonville and has from that time to this been doing a great work in its quiet but effective way, giving industrial training and help to hundreds of girls and women. This worthy organization has occupied rooms in the association building since 1880 and in these quarters a work of lasting benefit has been done. Some of the choicest spirits in our midst have been identified with the organization, and in disbanding the surviving members feel that they give up a work that has been well done.

Communication as Made:

To the board of trustees of the Young Men's Christian Association of Jacksonville, Illinois:

May 7, 1913.

The Woman's Christian Association of Jacksonville, Illinois, at a regular meeting held to day, unanimously adopted the enclosed resolutions, to go into effect the first day of July 1913.

Yours Respectfully,

Miss M. E. Catlin, Pres.

Mrs. Sarah Shreve Price, Sec.

Whereas, The Woman's Christian Association of Jacksonville, Illinois intends to give up its organization and cease from active work; and

Whereas, it has under its control funds to the amount of five hundred dollars contributed by the late F. E. Farrell, to be used for charitable purposes.

Therefore, Resolved:

That said fund of five hundred dollars be paid to the Young Men's Christian Association of Jacksonville on condition that said fund be invested on good security and preserved as permanent endowment fund, the interest only derived from said fund to be used in paying the current expenses of said association; and that said fund shall be known as "The Woman's Christian Fund."

Gives "Y" More Room.

The Y. M. C. A. is giving up its organization releases it right to the two rooms which it has occupied for so many years, thus giving the Y. M. C. A. and opportunity to utilize the space for dormitory purposes, which it is seriously considering. It will be possible to make at least twelve rooms out of the space now available on the second floor. The project can readily be carried through if each church, or group of persons, or individuals will agree to back the expense of fitting up one or more rooms. There is no reason why this cannot be done without being a special burden to any one. The income from this source will be considerable and will thus decrease the amount usually raised by subscription.

GET RUBBISH READY.

Rubbish will be moved by the city street department as follows: fourth ward to day; second ward, Saturday; third ward, Monday; first ward, Tuesday. Notify superintendent of streets if you have rubbish to be moved.

R. L. Pyatt, City Clerk.

NEW ENGLAND MUSIC FESTIVAL.

Springfield, Mass., May 8.—Many music lovers have arrived in Springfield to attend the annual May music festival, which opened tonight and will continue over Friday and Saturday. The program for the festival this year is the best ever arranged by the association. In addition to the mammoth festival chorus and the Boston Festival orchestra, the participants will include Mme. Schumann-Heink, Pasquale Amato, Mme. Gerville-Besche and several other famous soloists. The festival will conclude Saturday night with the presentation of the sacred opera, "Samson and Delilah."
